29 of the World's Most Instagrammable Pools For All Your Bachelorette Party Needs

Influencer-worthy.

If you didn't 'gram it, did it even happen? When you and your crew want the absolute best location for a weekend (or week) to celebrate your upcoming nups, the possibilities are endless, but for the most epic pools around the world where photo opps, poolside libations, and chic AF cabanas abound, look no further than this list.

Faena, Miami, Florida and Buenos Aires, Argentina

With not one but two iconic locations in Miami and Buenos Aires, having your bachelorette party at a Faena Hotel will be one for the books. Faena Miami is a photographer (or aspiring insta star)'s dream thanks to the gorge pool and Damien Hirst Gone But Not Forgotten piece — AKA the gold woolly mammoth next to the pool that's ideal for the 'gram — and just steps away is Los Fuegos by Francis Mallmann where traditional South American cuisine (and damn delish empanadas) await. For the South American Faena experience in Argentina, lounge by their pool that features a royal crown fountain in the middle...because queens need their props for pics.
