The best hotels in Miami

Where to stay in everybody's favourite Florida city

Faena

Alan Faena's Miami masterpiece features a lobby so grand it's nicknamed 'the Cathedral', dramatic Damien Hirst artworks (see: a weighty gold mammoth skeleton in a glass box), colourful rooms and red-and-white-striped parasols marking out its private patch of beach. There's art at every turn, whether you want to admire creative combinations of shells adorning walls and dressing tables, gilt-framed oil paintings and, for the especially eagle-eyed, motifs with hidden meanings everywhere. The chefs at Los Fuegos regularly crank up the asado grill for leisurely brunches, or there's Spanish, Filipino and French fusion food at Pao – if you can get a table.
